

Kansas Lifeline Program

The Kansas Lifeline Program is a telephone assistance plan that provides income-eligible consumers with a reduction in the price of basic local service. You may be eligible to receive up to $9.25 off your monthly local telephone bill through the Kansas Lifeline Program.

You are eligible if you receive any of the following:

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Medicaid, Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) General Assistance, Tribally Administered Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, Veterans Pension and Survivors Pension Benefit, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Tribal Head Start (tribal programs for only those meeting its income qualifying standard), Federal Public Housing Assistance (FHPA), Food Distribution Program on Tribal Lands, or 135% of the federal poverty level*. A consumer must provide THREE CONSECUTIVE MONTHS of statements as documentation of income, or provide a copy of his or her tax return for the previous year.
